

PS4 Checklist

Before Ecoglo can complete a PS4 we require the following documents:

- The consented fire report (the one with the council consent stamps on it).
- The document from the council specifying the consent conditions.
- Comprehensive clearly labelled photos indicating the location of EVERY installed Ecoglo component, AND an external view of each exit door and the area around it (to confirm there are no level changes outside the exit doors).

We also require any of the documents below which are appropriate:

- The Ecoglo Construction PS3 completed by the installer of the Ecoglo components confirming the installation has been carried out in accordance with Ecoglo installation instructions.
- Note that nosings require fixing with screws AND Wurth KD Bond & Seal, and where nosings or other strips are to be butted together, there must always be a 3mm expansion gap between them.
- The Ecoglo Hybrid Exit Sign PS3 completed by a suitably qualified electrical tradesperson confirming the installation of the Ecoglo Hybrid exit sign(s) is in accordance with the Ecoglo design, as well as the New Zealand Building Code (NZBC).
- The Ecoglo Electrical PS3 completed by a suitably qualified electrical tradesperson confirming the installation of the electrical emergency lighting components is in accordance with the Ecoglo design, as well as NZBC F6/AS1 and F8/AS1.
- Photos clearly showing the location of all installed emergency luminaires.
- Confirmation from a suitably qualified electrical tradesperson that the specified light switching controls have been installed.

FEES

The fee for providing the PS4 (as long as a site inspection is not required) is as follows:

Small-medium job with no electrical emergency lighting.....$375 + GST

Small-medium job with electrical emergency lighting..... $500 + GST

Larger jobs are individually quoted.

Payment must be made prior to the PS4 being issued.

We normally work to provide the PS4 documentation within 3 working days following suitable installation, and receipt of all the necessary information.